

Suggested Documents for Administrative Relief

These are examples of documents that we suggest be collected in preparation for applying for Administrative Relief and will vary based on the individual.

We've listed suggested documents to use for each requirement. You may not need them all!

| | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Proving identity , such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Birth certificate, passport or other national identification - Driver's license or school ID | <input type="checkbox"/> Proving that you have lived continuously in the United States since January 1, 2010 , and that you were in the United States on June 15, 2012 (for DACA) or November 20, 2014 (for DAPA). Try to get documents for every year (2010-2015) and as many months as possible within each year. You could use: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - School records, including certificates in school - Medical records - Mail that came in your name to an address in the United States - Insurance policies - Rental contracts - Evidence of bank accounts in your name - Baptismal certificates, confirmation records, or other proof of your participation in community activities - Employment or tax records (do not to submit any documents with false or incorrect information) - Utility bills in your name |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Proving family relationship (for Deferred Action for Parents of Americans and Lawful Permanent Residents (DAPA)), such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Birth certificate(s), marriage certificate, divorce certificate | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Proving that you arrived to the United States before January 1, 2010, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Copy of your I-94 and visa - School records, including certificates in school - Medical records - Mail that came in your name to an address in the United States - Insurance policies, bank accounts in your name - Baptismal certificates, confirmation records, or other proof of your participation in community activities - Employment or tax records (do not to submit any documents with false or incorrect information) | <input type="checkbox"/> Copy of your file from any court before which you have appeared or from any contact with law enforcement |

The following are ONLY suggested for DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) applicants

| | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Proving that you arrived to the United States before age 16, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Copy of your I-94 and visa - School records, including certificates in school - Medical records - Mail that came in your name to an address in the United States - Insurance policies, bank accounts in your name - Baptismal certificates, confirmation records, or other proof of your participation in community activities - Employment or tax records (do not to submit any documents with false or incorrect information) | <input type="checkbox"/> If you have graduated from high school or have obtained a GED, you could use: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A copy of your diploma/certificate of completion OR If you have not graduated from high school or obtained your GED, evidence that you are currently enrolled in school at that time you are applying for deferred action <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Transcripts, copy of your current schedule, copies of your most recent report cards - A notarized letter from your school on letterhead, confirming your enrollment |
|---|--|